Global C-Suite Business and Finance Program

Leap forward to a global designation.

Let us welcome you to the Global C-suite Business and Finance Program – an esteemed pathway designed to complement your vast experience in finance and business functions as a C-suite executive, giving you an unparalleled competitive advantage.

The global business arena is all about making the right connections. We aim to gather industry leaders worldwide with advanced proficiencies in finance, operations, strategy and management to this prestigious community to bring you an exclusive global networking opportunity.

Under this fast-track programme, candidates will attend a workshop and will only take the last exam of the CGMA® Professional Qualification – the Strategic Case Study (SCS). Candidates will be awarded CIMA® membership and the Chartered Global Management Accountant® (CGMA) designation upon passing the exam and successful membership application.

Successful candidates who are accepted into the Global C-Suite Program will attend a workshop. The workshop prepares candidates for the SCS: a three-hour exam focusing on applying business and management accounting techniques to analyse, recommend and support decisions – areas that fall within the scope of C-suite executives and senior management.

Sit only one exam.

Submit the application form and relevant supporting documents for review.

AICPA & CIMA admit you into the programme.

Attend a four- or five-day workshop to prepare for the exam.

Sit for the SCS exam.

Send in your membership application.

Get awarded with CIMA membership and the CGMA designation.*

* Upon passing the Strategic Case Study exam and successful membership application.

Fees

The programme fee includes:

- ▶ Registration
- ▶ One-time exam fee for SCS exam
- ▶ A face-to-face workshop
- ▶ Networking luncheon during the workshop

Darron Sun

Head of Information Technology,
Hong Kong Housing Society

'In the digital era, business and technology complement each other, and we need more senior executives who are generalists to make enterprises more competitive. The CGMA designation helps C-suite executives cope with the fast-changing commercial world. The case studies were very insightful, and I managed to expand my personal network. I'd recommend this programme without reservation to all senior managers who want to grow and glow in their career'.

Maryann Tseng

Managing Director - Head of Greater China Equity
Capital Markets and Syndicate
Nomura International (Hong Kong) Limited

'I found the programme syllabus well-structured and systematic. This allowed the class, which consisted of very busy senior managers, to focus on what would help most in their day-to-day jobs. We were tackling complicated cases and difficult issues but in a way that got straight to the essential points. We were also able to focus on key technical skills, critical thinking, decision-making, leadership and communication'.

Lofai Lo

CEO, MakerVille;
Director, ViuTV

'As an executive in the media industry, the programme gave me a new perspective in running a business. It provides continuous training that equips me to face industry challenges, such as coping with the digital revolution and complex user behaviors. The CGMA designation combines finance, management and creativity to help its holders lead a business. The programme is a tough but great challenge for anyone who wants to lead better'.

Rex Gu

CFO – Asia Pacific Operations,
A.P. Moller – Maersk China

'A career in finance and management accountancy is a great choice, especially in Asia-Pacific, where demand is strong. The programme and the CGMA curriculum provide an array of managerial toolkits, which I've found quite handy and effective when dealing with complex business challenges. The qualification also strengthens my potential and leads me to a rewarding career that I am excited about'.

Selection criteria

The programme is open to CFOs, CEOs and members of senior management with at least 10 years of experience in finance or business functions.

The Global C-Suite Program will enhance your skills in:

- ▶ Driving business success across sectors – Use data-driven financial insights for strategic decision-making and meet business needs in a digital age.
- ▶ Influencing those around you – Develop broader leadership skill sets to inspire those around you amid changing and uncertain times.
- ▶ Strategic business partnering – Possess the tools necessary to make reliable decisions and create sustainable value for your organisation.
- ▶ Growing your network – Gain access to over 689,000 peers and industry leaders worldwide through the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants®.

How to be accepted into the programme

Fill in the programme application form and submit it with your detailed CV, that includes:

- ▶ Personal details
- ▶ Academic and professional qualifications
- ▶ Detailed work experience
- ▶ Reporting lines and supervised team information for each job role

We will review the application form and your CV for eligibility into the programme.

About the Association

The Association of International Certified Professional Accountants® (the Association) represents AICPA® & CIMA and works to power opportunity, trust and prosperity for people, businesses and economies worldwide. It represents 689,000 members, students and engaged professionals in public and management accounting and advocates for the public interest and business sustainability on current and emerging issues. With broad reach, rigor and resources, the Association advances the reputation, employability and quality of CPAs, CGMA designation holders and accounting and finance professionals globally.

About CGMA

The Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) designation distinguishes professionals who have advanced proficiency in finance, operations, strategy and management. It is underpinned by extensive global research to maintain the highest relevance with employers and develop competencies most in demand. It was established in 2012 by the American Institute of CPAs® (AICPA®) and The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants® (CIMA) to recognise a unique group of management accountants who have reached the highest benchmark of quality and competence.

The CGMA designation is backed by the largest network of accounting and finance professionals. Through the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants, representing AICPA & CIMA, CGMA designation holders are better positioned to analyse information, advise strategy and drive business success. CGMA designation holders qualify through rigorous education, exam and experience requirements. They must commit to lifelong education and adhere to a stringent code of ethical conduct. More than 137,000 accounting and finance professionals hold the CGMA designation, making it the most widely held management accounting designation in the world.
